

Sikles Eco Trek-The Natural and Cultural Excursion

Overview:

"Join us and participate on an excursion of the picturesque, wild and of the bitten trail for naturally and culturally rich the Sikles Eco Trek in Annapurna Region completely isolated but closure destination and experience the Joy of Trekking in Nepal."

The Sikles is an excellent and extremely well preserved village rested on a small hill at an elevation of 1980m on the Lap of Annapurna Massif. In Sikles Eco Trek however the ultimate destination is Sikles -the great settlement of famous Gurkhas in Kaski district, one can explore the other neighboring habitants of Brahmans, Tamangs and Gurung communities en-route on the villages like Hemja, Ghachok, Bhurjung Khola, Kharapani, Chyanglung, Ghalekharka, Parche and Tanting. The Sikles Eco Trek that the Team Snowy Horizon proposing here is with charming villages, fascinating patterns of terraced fields, rhododendron forest and high alpine meadows nestled below the towering mountains of Annapurna II (7937m) and IV (7525m) on its path of a small circuit along with the Lamjung Himal (6983m).

The villageslike Parche, Sikles and Tanting take you to the remote and far from city area however these days you have excess of motor roadover there. The wild path between Ghale Kharka (1750m) to Sikles (Parche-1980m) is a fabulous trekking path and it crosses a ridge with the dense forest and variety of terrain through its highest peak Tara Hill Top (2800m)links the two villages named Khaimrang (1660m) with Sikles.

The Sikles Eco Trek with team Snowy Horizon starts with drive from Pokhara to Ghachok via Hemja at about 40 minutes and begins walking. Toward the north in Sardi Khola bank we have the 1st Night camping schedule on a very good Seti River view on the lap of Mt. Fishtail. This trek passes through less visited area of Annapurna II & Lamjung Himal massif. The trek also offers the abundance of flora and fauna.

The Major attractions of Sikles Eco Trek are:

- The trek is one of the picturesque treks that unfold the natural beauty and cultural heritage.
- The charming villages, intriguing patterns of terraced fields, rhododendron forest.
- High alpine meadows nestled below the towering mountains of Annapurna II (7937m) and Lamjung Himal (6983m)
- Previously known the Royal Trek as Prince Charles had a trek through the area in 1980 to visit the villages of Gurkha recruits.
 - The model eco trekking route shadowed at the corner of the Annapurna Conservation Area Project (ACAP).
- The spectacular short trek through the Gurung (Gurkhas) village and dense forest.
- Alternatives to other short treks in Annapurna region.
- A wonderful experience of camping trekking in Nepal.
